60000 times groundnut income in Rajkot market yard on the auspicious occasion of Labha Pancham:

- >The auction will be held on Sardar Patel's birth anniversary
- >Purchase of goods at support prices has been started
- >Farmers are eager to distribute the goods quickly when the demand for groundnut is high

After the festivities of Diwali, Chikkali income of groundnuts has started in Rajkot market yard starting from Labha Pancham. According to Jayesh Boghra, chairman of the yard, 60000 times the income of groundnut has been achieved in the Rajkot marketing yard.

The auction will be held tomorrow on Sardar Patel's birth anniversary. All over Saurashtra, including Rajkot, has started buying goods at subsidized prices. At the Rajkot yard, when the receipt of goods started, 800 vehicles lined up at the gate of the yard. These vehicles will be gradually allowed to unload the goods, farmers are eager to distribute the goods quickly as there is a good demand for peanuts.
